Persimmon (Diospyros virginiana)

Hardiness Zone:	5-9
Mature Height:	35-60 feet
Features:	Dark green summer foliage that changes to yellow or reddish-purple in autumn: pale orange fruit (on female trees) in fall, edible upon ripening (after frost) thick, blocky bark.
Culture:	Full sun; moist, well-drained soil, but tolerant of drought; ph adaptable.
Growth Rate:	Slow to Medium
Mature Form:	Oval
Soil Conditions:	✔ Dry ✔ Moist, Well-Drained Wet
Tolerance:	Alkaline Soil ✔ Dry Sites Salt Soil Compaction Wet Sites ✔ Wind
Uses:	Massing Patio Screen ✔ Shade Specimen Street Wind Break
Foliage Color:	Green
Fall Foliage Color:	Purple Yellow
Additional Notes:	Difficult to transplant due to taproot; plant where you want it to remain., male and female flowers on separate trees so both must be present for fruit to be produced. Good near streams.
Size Quantity Price per:	16”-18” seedlings 5 pack $ 8.00

Persimmon form

Persimmon leaves and fruit

ORDER INFORMATION

Description	:	Persimmon
Size (approximate)	:	16”-18”
Quantity	:	5 seedlings
Price	:	$ 8.00